

6516205481.txt

I commute over an hour one way every day and grew tired of trying to find a local channel that could be heard across the distance I travel. I purchased XM Radio to solve this issue. I rely on the weather and traffic information provided. I urge you to reject the NAB's petition 04-160. I have no other method of receiving this critical information.

Kate Green